

RECIPIENTS GUELPH & DISTRICT MULTICULTURAL FESTIVAL 2008
MY CONTRIBUTION TO PEACE POSTER & WRITING SCHOOL DISPLAY

Grade	Name	Posters - Guelph Arts Council Review	School
JK - 1	Gold: Quinton Jackson	Clever illustration, excellent details, very positive message.	Holy Rosary WCDSB
	Silver: Joanna Hui	Joanna's illustration of humans connected by love was very touching. Great idea including plants, animals, insects and birds. Very original.	ILP - Cantonese WCDSB
	Bronze: Caleb Commandant	The bright colours of Caleb's entry cheerfully reminds us that sometimes, peace requires turning the other cheek.	St. Patrick WCDSB
2 - 3	Gold: Kaitlyn German	Excellent composition and use of page. Colours are bright. The roots going into the ground are a great detail. The harmony in the picture is very moving.	Victory P.S. UGDSB
	Silver: Parth Prajapati	Parth's image with similar people around the planet all joining hands is a very interesting idea. Mentioning the Multicultural Festival was a great idea.	Willow Road UGDSB
	Bronze: Julia Huynh	Julia's two-panel illustration promotes conversation as a means of peace and bans violence. Excellent use of theme.	ILP Cantonese WCDSB
4 - 6	Gold: Veronika Kosir	This lovely oil pastel piece promotes friendship across cultures. Excellent composition and colour choices.	St. Peter's WCDSB
	Silver: Jachelle Casupanan	Jachelle's colourful poster includes flags and ways of saying hello from all around the globe. Excellent cartoon styles and use of the page.	St. Joseph's WCDSB
	Bronze: Jessica Hynes	Jessica's incredibly detailed poster shows us that she believes that teaching caring and sharing to children will bring peace. Great work.	Edward Johnson WCDSB
7 - 8	Gold: Emily Nespolo	Emily's beautifully executed poster gives us many options for promoting peace. We love the flags, and the symbols of faith. Very original. Incredible use of colour and composition	St. Michael WCDSB
	Silver: Allie Hynes	Allie's use of the golden rule and illustrations of the faces of children around the world is very detailed and well executed. Excellent work capturing the details of the different faces.	King George UGDSB
	Bronze: Jessica Sweeny	Jessica's illustration is very original, and has great colours. The issues, people, phrases and organizations that inspire her quest for peace are very moving.	St. Francis WCDSB
9 - 12	Gold: Siobhan Devine	This poster's simplicity of design is very well thought out, from the colours of the lettering to the skilled rendering of the hands. Incredible work.	St. James WCDSB
	Silver: Steven MacLeod	Everything about this poster draws the eye, and begs you to look closer. Excellent use of the page, great colours and details.	St. James WCDSB
	Bronze: Victoria lus	A very powerful poster that reminds us that peace is always a choice, and that it is ours to make. Very moving.	St. James WCDSB

Writing - Guelph Arts Council Review

4 - 6	Gold: Ashley Hosker	"Dear Earth" Nice tie in between caring for the earth and peace. Clear, attractive format.	St. Michael WCDSB
	Silver: Matt Martin	"My Contribution to World Peace" Great references to respect for each other, the earth and multiculturalism. Good use of quotes.	Salem P.S. UGDSB
	Bronze: Alex Stirling	"Alex" Gives actions to take individually and as a group. Shows both a local and world view.	Willow RD. P.S. UGDSB
7 - 8	Gold: Diana Burchell	"Peace is a Hug" Thoughtful use of experiences from everyday life to illustrate the theme.	St. Michael WCDSB
	Silver: Julia Busatto	"World Peace" Comprehensive and expressive use of language and format.	Westwood UGDSB
	Bronze: Tina Petresin	"My Contribution to Peace" A heartfelt message with a creative use of the word peace to list key elements.	Willow Road UGDSB
9 - 12	Gold: Mary Mekhail Grade 11	"I Believe There Can Be Peace" Thoughtful with a nice flow. Recognizes multiculturalism within the theme.	Bishop MacDonell WCDSB
	Silver: Elizabeth McCallum	"A Piece of Your Heart" Creative approach to the theme that is well thought out. Recognition of local and world peace.	Centennial CVI UGDSB
	Bronze: Marina Mekhail	"It is That Simple" Links the theme to respect and responsibility for each other.	Bishop MacDonell WCDSB