

One World Living Together School Display Award - 2011

Writing Category

	Name	Guelph Arts Council Review:	School
Grades 2 – 3	Gold Mahelan Thambirajah	Different perspective and amount of effort was appreciated. Clearly a great deal of thought went into this work.	Mitchell Woods P.S.
	Silver Isaiah MacInnis	Particularly enjoyed line: “peace is better than food or money” because of honesty as well as genuine perspective.	Gateway Drive P.S.
	Bronze Qasim Khan	The honest response showed genuine thoughts. A level of understanding for theme presented through uniqueness of work.	Gateway Drive P.S.
Grades 4 – 6	Gold David Botros	This piece was incredibly unique with an interesting portrayal of theme. Very well done and enjoyable to read.	John McCrae P.S.
	Silver Eva Deligiannis	A unique perspective with a personal feel. A clear and concise response demonstrating understanding of theme.	Central P.S.
	Bronze Abbey Hyatt	Entry was honest, clever and real with simple truths of the world revealed. There were many differences covered in a unique way.	Mitchell Woods P.S.
Grades 7 – 8	Gold Miranda Madekufamba	Structured well and was an honest response to the result of living together as one.	St. Michaels Catholic School
	Silver Jayne Elford	The reference at the start/end mentioning “stars” nicely tied writing together. The structure is sound and appropriate.	Mitchell Woods P.S.
	Bronze Noha Robbins-Driussi	Clear rhythm present in this entry. The writing was structurally sound and had a nice context.	St. Joseph’s Catholic School
Grades 9 – 12	Gold Ashley Todorowski	Illustrations and clever rhythm were enjoyable. The context reflected the theme well.	St. John Bosco Secondary School

Digital Art Category

Grades 9 – 12	Gold - Nick de Grave	Context was appropriate with inspirational people featured. The formatting was well done and clever as well as unique to theme.	Lourdes High School
	Silver Kristin McGillivray	The perspective on Earth is rather unique and pleasing. There is appreciable colour present as well.	Lourdes High School
	Silver James Clarke-Hicks	Simple yet eye catching- this entry was concise and appealing.	Lourdes High School
	Bronze Zack Meadows	“Cool” concept with original and unique interpretation of theme; eye catching design draws viewers in.	Lourdes High School

Poster Category

Grades JK - 1	Gold Benjamin Kosir	The animals brought together as well as the clear land and water use is clever. Quite an original portrayal on the theme.	St Peter Catholic School
	Silver Luka Hazl	Great images and the inclusion of Earth with use of enjoyable colours. Also a good use of space given.	Victory P.S.
	Bronze Fernando Flores Miguel	Enjoyed the happy humans and the planet Earth. The hearts to signify love were also appropriate and unique.	International Languages Program
Grades 2 – 3	Gold Ethan Booker	This was a clever idea with puzzle pieces connecting everything. The simplicity and clearness was appreciated as well as the interesting portrayal.	Waverley Drive P.S.
	Silver Sophia Offen	The excerpt in centre of entry was enjoyable as well as the great use of colour. The inclusion of plants and animals is also clever and appropriate.	St. Patrick Catholic School
	Bronze Jordan Locke	Nice symbolism with Earth illustrated as heart. There is a strong use of colour with a touch of simplicity and uniqueness.	Mitchell Woods P.S.
	Bronze Kara Parkinn	Enjoyed the happy children as well as the recognizable Earth & diversity	Taylor Evens P. S.
Grades 4 – 6	Gold Yaqoot Azizi	Great use of inventive materials. The texture is very different and eye catching.	Mitchell Woods P.S.
	Silver Justyna Komorowski	Entry was original and well presented with a clever take on theme. The “dream” aspect is appreciated as we all have dreams.	St. Joseph Catholic School
	Bronze Anoop Takhar	Colour use as well as the inclusion of the slogan. Togetherness is represented well with nice.	Mitchell Woods P.S.
Grades 7 – 8	Gold David Kozma	Excellent illustrations for grade level with a clear message even if text was removed. Very unique and nicely achieved.	St. John Catholic School
	Gold Hannah Connolly	Good representation of “One world Living Together”. With the Universe being incorporated the theme is expanded and unique.	Mary Phelan Catholic School
	Silver Inessa Townsend–Fish	Characters have great movement and entry was very inclusive of cultures. A particularly unique take on theme.	St. Michaels Catholic School
	Bronze Hannah Kendall	This was clever and bright as well as straight forward with a clear message. Quite simple yet eye catching.	St. Michaels Catholic School
Grades 9 – 12	Gold Steven Faggion	Recognizable characters add to theme as well as them all being connected to represent togetherness.	St. James High School
	Silver Rachel Morrison	The family tree/tree of life is a nice addition to entry. The mixed mediums are also well presented. A unique perspective with each shirt representing various flags from around the world.	St. James High School
	Bronze Sarah Santos	There is a bold use of colours as well as an internal theme of unity with figures holding hands. A great way of presenting togetherness.	St James High School