

GUELPH & DISTRICT
Multicultural
 AWARD 2012

The Festival Committee and Sponsors: Scotiabank, Rogers TV, Guelph Mercury, Guelph Tribune, 1460 CJOY and Magic 106.1, congratulate the recipients of the Guelph & District Multicultural Award 2012: Hewan Wossene for the Youth Category, Shreya Shinde for the Individual and the Immigrant Services of Guelph Wellington for the Group/Organization Category.

Hewan Wossene was recognized for being active in both her school community at John F. Ross and the community at large. She has been volunteering with the Bracelet of Hope campaign, with the Immigrant Services youth group, and the multicultural week event at her school.

Immigrant Services - Guelph Wellington was recognized for being an ongoing valuable service provider for new Canadians. Accepting the award for IS-GW: Board Members Brian Wiley and Anne Marie Gilroy, with staff Karen Kew and Amenda Ng.

Shreya Shinde was honoured for her work with newcomer families, in welcoming them to the community and linking them with the needed resources.

Introduced in 2007, the GDMA provides everyone with an opportunity to acknowledge contributions made by our local citizens and organizations to the civic, cultural and social welfare of our community.
